

Barbara Jean Thompson
1937 - 2016

Barbara Jean Thompson, 78 yrs, of Petersburg, died Tuesday, February 9 in Hospice of Northwest Ohio, Toledo, OH. She will lie in state at St. Peters Lutheran Church, Petersburg, on Saturday, February 13, 2016, from 10 AM until the Services at 11 AM. Pastor Mark Flory will officiate.

Born August 20, 1937 in Toledo, OH, Barbara was the daughter of Charles and Elnor (Frank) Strohl. She was a 1955 Petersburg High School graduate and graduated from Toledo Hospital School of Nursing. Barbara was a Registered Nurse for over 40 yrs, working in various institutions. Her favorite was Monroe Power Plant as a site nurse. She retired in the 1990's. Barb's greatest loves were her kids, time spent on any Michigan beach, and buying gifts for friends and family. With a succession of beloved pets, she could frequently be seen with a joyous dog hanging out of her car window. She enjoyed caring for people in need and nursing remained a lifelong passion. Barb had a quick and irreverent sense of humor, and liked to engage with others who could match it.

Survivors include: two daughters; Sally Thompson, Nancy Dashner and two sisters; Joyce (Byron) Pickens and Judith Jackson. She was preceded in death by her parents, Charles and Elnor and a son-in-law, Butch Dashner.

In lieu of flowers, memorials can be made to: Veterans of Foreign Wars.
